to honor fsg's 75th anniversary here is a unique anthology celebrating the riches and variety of its poetry list past present and future poetry has been at the heart of farrar straus and giroux's identity ever since robert giroux joined the fledgling company in the mid 1950s soon bringing t.s. eliot john berryman robert lowell and elizabeth bishop onto the list these extraordinary poets and their successors have been essential in helping define fsg as a publishing house with a unique place in american letters the fsg poetry anthology includes work by almost all of the more than one hundred twenty five poets whom fsg has published in its seventy five year history giroux's first generation was augmented by a group of international figures and nobel laureates including pablo neruda nelly Sachs derek walcott seamus heaney and joseph brodsky over time the list expanded to include poets as diverse as yehuda amichai john ashberry frank bidart louise gluck ck thom Gunn ted hughes yusef komunyakaa mina loy marianne moore paul muldoon les murray grace paley carl phillips gertrud schnackenberg james schuyler c.k. williams charles wright james wright and adam Zagajewski today henri cole francine j. harris ishion Hutchinson maureen n. mclane ange mlisko valzhyna mort rowan ricardo phillips and frederick seidel are among the poets who are continuing fsg's tradition as a discoverer and promoter of the most vital and distinguished contemporary voices this anthology is a wide ranging showcase of some of the best poems published in america over the past three generations it is also a sounding of poetry's present and future what is the role of the senses in the creation and reception of poetry how does poetry carry on the long tradition of making experience and suffering understood by others with poetry and the fate of the senses susan stewart traces the path of the aesthetic in search of an explanation for the role of poetry in culture herself an acclaimed poet stewart not only brings the intelligence of a critic to the question of poetry but the insight of a practitioner as well her new study includes close discussions of poems by stevens hopkins keats hardy bishop and traherne of the sense of vertigo in baroque and romantic works and of the rich tradition of nocturnes in visual musical and verbal art ultimately she argues that poetry can counter the denigration of the senses in contemporary life and can expand our imagination of the range of human expression poetry and the fate of the senses won the 2004 truman capote award for literary criticism in memory of newton arvin administered for the truman capote estate by the university of iowa writers workshop it also won the phi beta kappa society's 2002 christian gauss award for literary criticism this is the first introduction to rhythm and meter that begins where students are as speakers of english familiar with the rhythms of ordinary spoken language and of popular verse such as nursery rhymes songs and rap poetic rhythm builds on this knowledge and experience taking the reader from the most basic questions about the rhythms of spoken english to the elaborate achievements of past and present poets terminology is straightforward the simple system of scansion that is introduced is suitable for both handwriting and computer use and there are frequent practical exercises chapters deal with the elements of verse english speech rhythms the major types of metrical poetry free verse and the role of sense and syntax poetic rhythm will help readers of poetry experience and enjoy its rhythms in all their power subtlety and diversity and will serve as an invaluable tool for those who wish to write or discuss poetry in english at a basic as well as a more advanced level malcolm cowley hart crane s life was notoriously turbulent persistently nonconformist and tragically short this new biography presents for the first time a full frank portrait of the real hart crane a poet attractive both for his flamboyance and passion for life and for the magnificent sonorities of his work 18 illustrations this famous work was the result of the wartime collaboration of two scottish scholars their tracing of the course of english poetry has been described by the times literary supplement as a volume of masterly compression they deliberately spend most time on the greatest poets believing that significant as traditions and influences are the great poet himself affects the spirit of his age and moulds the tradition he has inherited at the same time enough attention is paid to minor poets to make the book historically complete and to fill in the most important links in the chain of poetic development thus gower is here as well as chaucer patmore as well as browning both in scope and in detail a critical history of english poetry is a distinguished and valuable work saltzman reveals figuration to be both inevitable and inevitably unreliable and he illustrates how these writers treat this condition not as an impasse but as a point of departure indeed as an artistic mandate and creative opportunity
